

THE MAINE PHILATELIST

Volume 41, Number 1&2

FALL 2008

Whole # 152/153

By Max Lynds
President

A time to choose.....

.....a time to remember

Cooler weather is here and the leaves have turned to orange and red signaling that the white stuff could soon be here. The summer flew by way too quick (for me anyway). Rumors are abound that we are supposed to get more snow this winter than last year's record breaking accumulations. Get your shovels ready!

With this issue a little experiment is taking place. This edition will count as both the Summer and Fall 2008 issues but will contain 12 pages instead of the usual 8. This will get the newsletter back on schedule. Next issue will go out late December or early January. Pages 4-7 are examples of what we could use for articles. Call it a 2 or 4 page exhibit. If you like the format send me articles trying to fill full pages with your exhibit. I do need some articles.

A couple of shows are coming u soon. The Waterville Stamp Club's Fall show in October, and the MPS-York County Stamp Club show in November will get the collector's out of their summer habits and back into the stamp collecting mode.

There will be a new web site ready shortly— www.maine-hobby.com This site will be host to MPS and clubs that wish to have their own page. The site will have information about other collectibles in Maine including coins and trains. This is a work in progress so keep checking.

Latest show information is on the web at:

Problem Cover from #151

The Post Office decided I owed them 30 cents for this. After looking the cover over I found out that the cover was a 6 cent envelope but with a 5 cent stamp so was indeed 30 cents short. But wait! That's a 35 cent stamp! The post office scraped off the 3 while processing. I took this back to the Post Office to point out their error. They offered me my 30 cents back for the cover but declined. I have had for more than 30 cents worth of fun with it so far.

From the APS Website

Q. I have U.S. stamps with letters but no denominations? Are they still valid for postage?

Yes, they are. Below is a list of non-denominated postage stamps and their values:

A = 15 cents

B = 18 cents

C = 20 cents

D = 22 cents

E = 25 cents

F = 29 cents F rate make-up stamp 4 cents

G = 32 cents G rate make-up stamps 3 cents

G Postcard = 20cents (the current post-card rate)

H = 33 cents H rate make-up 1 cent

I just had to show these stamps of the 50's "Fins and Chrome". Neat cars I wouldn't mind having in my garage. These stamps were issued October 3 in Carlisle, PA. One has until December 4 to order first day covers from:

The first nationwide catalog was published in 1872, offering more than 100 products by mail.

Aroostook County during the Civil War

Capt B.H. Putnam

Black Hawk Putnam was educated in the public schools in Houlton and at the Houlton Academy. In his youth he worked on local farms and as a clerk in the store his father, John, owned with Shepard Cary. In 1861 he recruited Company E of the 1st Maine Cavalry. In 1862 he led his Company with the famous charge into action at Middleton, West Virginia. During the encounter his Company lost forty-two men and had sixty-six horses killed. Capt. Putnam was wounded but escaped into the mountains with a few other men and for nine days wandered without food until finally finding their way back to another Union camp. After his return to Houlton after the war he farmed and was the owner of extensive timber and farm land.

Putnam was an enthusiastic Army of the Republic man and was Colonel of the Northern Maine Regiment for two years. Putnam married Jerusha Snell and had 3 children. Two cover addressed to Putnam are shown below.

West Houlton, Me to Manchester, NH

Mailed by Albert Brown with an enclosed letter to his brother Frank.
Letter spoke of local happenings.

Maine Cover of the Quarter

The above cover was sent from South Norridgewock, Maine (DPO 1856-1902) to Detroit, Michigan on 12/28/1885 and was unclaimed by the intended recipient. Even in 1885, Detroit, Michigan was a good size city, and the lack of a street address, no doubt, made the envelope very difficult to deliver. The post office gave a good effort though, as it was “advertised” before being returned to the sender with an assessment of 1 cent postage due for the advertising service.

If you have an unusual, scarce or interesting Maine cover candidate for Maine Cover of the Quarter, please send a photocopy of your cover against a black background to:
Rob Washburn, P.O. Box 840, Skowhegan, ME 04976

On October 23, 2008, in New York, New York, the PostalService™ will issue a 42-cent, Holiday Nutcrackers special stamp in four designs. Designed by Derry Noyes of Washington, DC, the stamp goes on sale nationwide October 23, 2008.

The stamp will be issued in the following formats:

Pressure-sensitive adhesive (PSA) double-sided booklet of 20 stamps (Item 78000).

PSA folded vending booklet of 20 stamps (Item 678100).

Automatic Teller Machine (ATM) sheetlet of 18 stamps (Item 571700).

Nutcrackers have been around for centuries. They range from simple utilitarian devices to elaborate collectibles, with a host of creations that fall somewhere in between. During the winter holiday season, nutcrackers of all shapes and sizes are familiar sights in toy stores, on Christmas trees, on mantel pieces, on book and magazine covers, and in performance venues. Four eye-catching nutcracker designs — Santa (or “Father Christmas”), a king, a captain, and a drummer — add colorful, humorous touches to winter holiday correspondence in 2008.

41 Years of 3 Cent Stamps

By Kenneth Weeks

As of November 2, 1917 the first class letter rate was increased to cents per letter. The stamp of the day was probably Scott #529 a 3 cent Washington. July 31, 1958 was the last day one could mail a letter for only 3 cents.

250 Auctions.....

Downeast Stamps celebrated its 250th philatelic auction on Wednesday August 13, 2008. MPS member Gil Roderick, proprietor, cuts the cake to a round of applause by members and guests at the conclusion of the auction. Originally established in 1969 as an approval service, Downeast gradually evolved through dealing at bourses, and finally into a public auction house in 1975 and has been serving collectors and dealers holding 6 auctions a year assembling a wide range of stamps, covers and collections appealing to the most meticulous collector as well as to the beginner and bargain hunter. Printed catalogs are mailed about one month prior to each sale. The on-line catalog is available at <http://www.destamps.com/main.htm> Gil can be contacted at 207-942-3825 for more information. MPS Secretary George W. Bostwick was on hand to provide this report and picture.

In the October 2008 issue of the "American Philatelist" MPS member Nancy Clark wrote an article on "The Saga of the Ackerman Medal." The Honorable Ernest R. Ackerman was a Congressman from New Jersey (1919-1931) and was a great advocate of philately. He along with Senator Joseph Frelinghuysen, another avid philatelist from New Jersey, worked legislation to allow illustrations of postage stamps in the United States. This legislation became law in 1923. That same year there was an international stamp exhibition in London and the American Philatelic Society provided a solid gold medallion. The medallion has "The Junior Philatelic Society" around one side and "Presented by American Philatelic Society" on the other. In a small area it is engraved "Hon. E.R. Ackerman." Earlier this year MPS member Bruce Hazelton was offered the medallion at a bourse he was set up at.

From MPS member Rick Stambaugh:

When in Seattle this summer, I went to the Flight Museum where there was a display of vintage U.S. Airmail airplanes. This poster cracked me up. The USPS was humping the use of airmail by showing that elegant people can use it!

Bruce immediately recognized the significance of this offer and negotiated the purchase. Bruce presented the Medallion to Nancy Clark as a representative of the APS. (left) Nancy in turn presented the medallion to Wade Saadi of the APS. (right) Congrats to all!!
